Hello friends, welcome to ESL.BONELO.COM. My name is Marcus, and I'm going to describe my room.

Well. Are you ready? Take your pencil and be ready to take notes. I have a pretty big room. This is good because I love my space. I have a nice bed that is always tidy and organized. Unluckily, my brother isn't that organized and we share this bedroom. There are 2 beds, and there is also a green rug. There is a big window and the window's got a curtain that matches the rug. On my side of the room, I have a shelf to put my books and other stuff. There's also a desk with its chair, a lamp, and a board where I stick my notes and my schedule. My brother has got pretty much the same things, but his side is always messy. Yes, my brother and I are different! But we are also very similar. Oh! There he is! We are going to go out with some friends. I have to go, bye.

2. Suggested activities

You can have a vocabulary game to introduce new words, prior to watching the video. You can also have students make predictions based on the first screenshot and the vocabulary you introduced beforehand.

To reduce anxiety, let your pupils know that they will have a number of chances to get the information. 3 repetitions should be enough; the first one should be used for general understanding (just listening), during the second one students can complete the script (fill in), and the last one could be a good chance to check answers.

Marcus had to leave, but the description is not complete. Can you remember any other items in the room? Finish the description, use HE, because you are not describing your room.

Now it's your turn. Describe your room.
